THE CANADIAN BROADCASTING CORPORATION at Fredericton, New Brunswick - CBZ AM 970 - confirms your reception on January 8, 1990.

CBZ serves Fredericton (population 45,000) and the Upper Saint John River Valley. There are other CBC stations in New Brunswick at 1110 AM - CBD Saint John and at 1070 AM - CBA Moncton. Each one of these stations also broadcast their signals from remote transmitter sites to other New Brunswick communities.

I have enclosed a number of items, one of which might interest you in your search for new CBC stations. It is the "CROSS-COUNTRY FREQUENCY GUIDE". The names in capital letters indicate program production centres. The names in lowercase letters are repeat stations and do not offer their own programming. By the way, CBC Radio has no commercial content, neither does CBC Stereo network.

It was nice to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Rose Arsenault
